

2025 Confirmation of Holiday Periods for International Students

This letter confirms the official holiday periods for international students enrolled or completed at Swinburne University of Technology in 2025.

International students on student visas must comply with visa work conditions outlined by the Department of Home Affairs. Details can be found at:

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/already-have-a-visa/check-visa-details-and-conditions/overview>

Work Rights Summary

- Students can only begin working once their course has officially commenced.
- International students may work up to 48 hours per fortnight while their course is in session.
- Students are permitted to work unlimited hours when their course is not in session.
- A course is considered not in session following the end of assessment period, even if the student does not have any exams.
- For students enrolled in packaged courses, the time between courses is considered a course break at the end of assessment period of the first course, and before the second course starts.
